Washington Saxophone Quartet

Sunday, February 25, 2018
7:30 p.m.

The Washington Saxophone Quartet is the most widely heard saxophone quartet in the United States. Since 1997, recorded arrangements by the Washington Saxophone Quartet have aired daily throughout the United States on National Public Radio's broadcasts of "All Things Considered". Concert audiences enjoy their connection to the quartet, and it often comes as a surprise that they've been hearing four saxophones! The instruments evoke the refined sounds of a string quartet, the rich harmonies of an organ prelude, and the excitement of a jazz sax section.

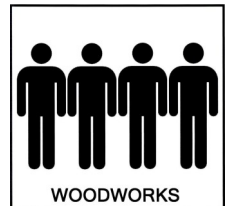

Covenant Spring Concert

Friday, March 16, 2018
7:30 p.m.

The Covenant Spring Music Concert features our Chancel Choir and Jubilate Ringers in a program titled "And on Earth, Peace to All of Good Will." Musical selections by Bach, Lauridson, Page, Faure, Raney, Handel, and Mozart will center around the theme of personal and international peace. Our choirs will be joined by a chamber orchestra of guest performers.
