

DAVID G. ROBINSON MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship is awarded to a graduating high school senior or collegiate music student who is serious in his/her musical study and has (preferably) participated in Covenant's music program. This scholarship is given in appreciation, not by application. Each year the Christian Education committee will take in to consideration all eligible candidates and award the most qualified candidate this one-time scholarship of $500. The winning candidate will receive the scholarship and be recognized in church during graduation Sunday in May.
